DECEMBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

ACTIVITIES

In the same way that we successfully celebrated Halloween last October, we will celebrate December with a Christmas picnic, on Sunday December 11, starting at 12:30 pm, at Mead Botanical Garden (Winter Park).

We will start with a potluck lunch, followed by:

- A pétanque (French ball game) tournament (adults only),
- A raffle with interesting prizes.

Please feel free to enhance your outfit with something Christmassy. Small decorations for the tables will also be welcome.

Our language school is very active with a variety of programs for adults and children (3-16 years old). AFGO offers:

- Multiple standard French courses at different levels,
- Culture and Conversation on Friday evening (for adults only),
- End of week (Saturday morning) activities for kids (4-11 years of age).

And, of course, AFGO continues its series of lectures, named "Discover France and its Culture", re various regions of France.

On November 25th, the first lecture of the 21st season started and will go on until January 6th and 7th, 2023. This season is dedicated to a central part of France called Limousin.

We remind you that these lectures are provided in English on Friday evening and in French on Saturday evening. For more information, please consult Muriel at murieldebevere@yahoo.fr.

In our previous month's newsletter, we mentioned that we would hold a "Wine and Cheese" party on November 19, in our office. For various reasons, including the Nicole hurricane, this event was postponed.

It will take place on Saturday, December 3, starting at 6:30 pm. The name of this event was extended to "Wine, Cheese and Art". The word Art was added because, in addition to tasting red and white Côtes du Rhône wines and various cheeses, we will enjoy the colorful paintings of French artist Yann Abily, a delight for eyes and mind.

Since mid-November a series of emails describing this event were sent out. You are also invited to consult AFGO website at www.aforlando.org where this event is posted.

December is a busy month. There will be no movie night this month. This kind of event will resume in January.

Merry Christmas
